

Sing Me A Song

Pamela J Holm

Am G C Am Em

"Sing me a song, a song of love," the dy - ing man whis - pered
"Sing me a song, a song of love," the dy - ing man be - coned me

4 D Am D E7

soft-ly He who al - lowed not the love of his friends
clo-ser I car - ried him back to his fish - er - man days

8 Am7 Bm C E7

with mu - sic, sweet mu - sic let love en - ter in with songs of the o - cean, be'ng rocked on the waves.

11 Am Fmaj7 (C)

and I sang of love's ten - der - ness, songs for his heart, and the
With peb - bles and sea shells a gain in his gaze, the

14 Dm7 Em Am

mu - sic o - pened him slow - ly. "Sing mu - sic o - pened him wi - der. [instrumental

17 C E7 Am F

to me of love," and a - mid an - gel's wings we pon - dered to - ge - ther the
to coda...]

20 C E7 Am F

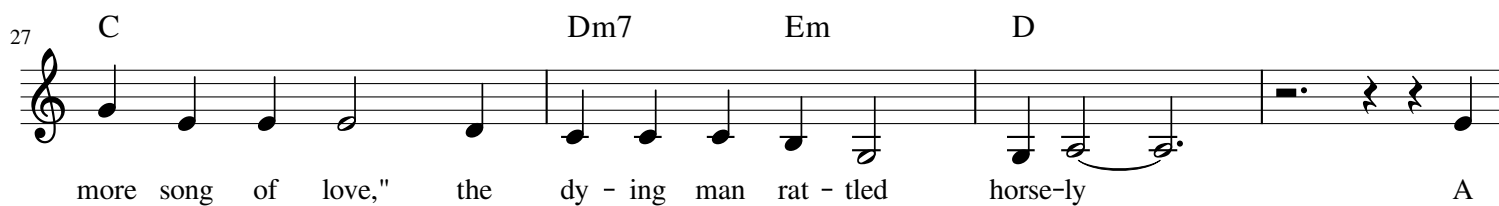

deep - est of things: re - mem - ber - ing loss - es and fears of the night, and

23 Em E7 Am

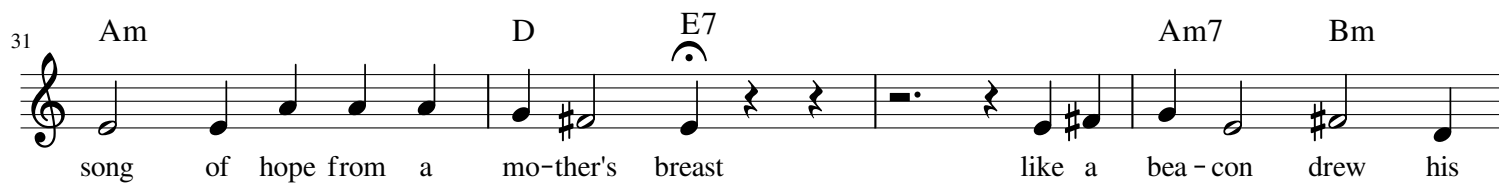

pas - sions of liv - ing when spi - rit takes flight "Sing me a song, one

27 C Dm7 Em D

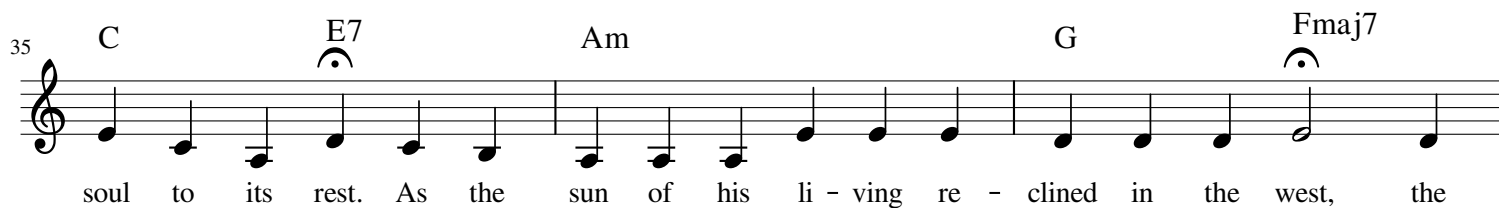

more song of love," the dy - ing man rat - tled horse-ly A

31 Am D E7 Am7 Bm

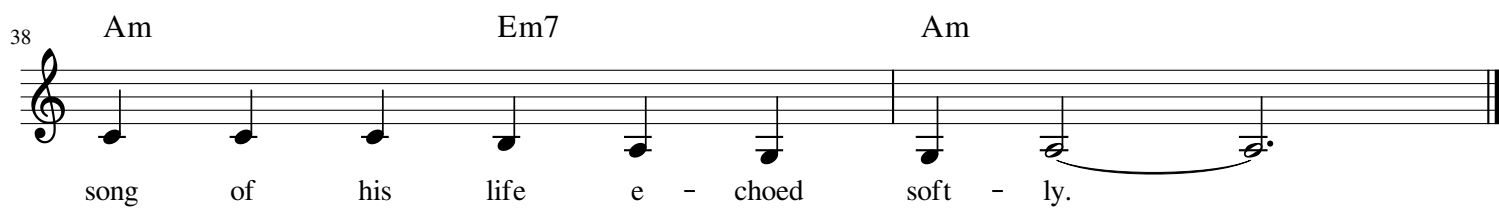

song of hope from a mo-ther's breast like a bea - con drew his

35 C E7 Am G Fmaj7

soul to its rest. As the sun of his li - ving re - clined in the west, the

38 Am Em7 Am

song of his life e - choed soft - ly.